SECTION 3

The eBPLS Applicant

This section is for business owners, called applicants, who use eBPLS to list their business and to ask the municipality for a permit. It follows the work in the order you do it: see your dashboard, add a business, request a permit, and ask an office a question.

ROLE Applicant: the business owner or authorized representative who signed in to eBPLS (Section 2.2).

3.8 Waiting for Approval: The Pending Status

After you send your request and its requirements, your request is reviewed in several steps. The status of the request stays PENDING in your Assessment Information list the whole time you wait. This part explains who reviews the request and what you can do meanwhile.

3.8.1 Who reviews your request

Three groups of staff work on your request. Until they have finished, the status does not change.

1. The Permit Evaluator checks the request and its requirements, runs the assessment and sends it on for approval (Section 4).
2. The offices (for example Engineering, Fire and Health) review the request and approve or disapprove it, each with remarks (Section 5).
3. The Municipal Treasurer's Office reviews the fees of the assessment and gives the final approval (Section 6). In the status list of your request, this office appears as BPLO.

3.8.2 What you see while you wait

The Status column of the Assessment Information list shows PENDING in orange for your request. The print icon and the arrow icon in the Action column are gray, which means they are not available yet.

3.9.4 Pay the assessment fee

Pay the assessment fee at the municipal hall. Payment is made on site, not online. You can bring the printed assessment with you.

> After you pay, the staff processes your payment. Your permit is then prepared for release.

Wait again for your applicant status to change (Section 3.10).

3.10 After Payment: Permit Preparation and Pickup

After you pay, the status of your request in the Assessment Information list changes in two more steps. Check the list from time to time to see the new status.

3.10.1 MP Preparation

When the Municipal Treasurer's Office has processed your payment, the status changes to MP Preparation. It means your permit is now handled by the Permit Issuance staff, who prepare your Mayor's Permit (MP) (Section 7). You do not need to do anything at this step.

3.10.2 Permit Is Ready for Pickup

After the Permit Issuance staff have prepared and printed your permit, the status changes to PERMIT IS READY FOR PICKUP. It means your Mayor's Permit is ready. To see and download it:

It also shows the OR Number and OR Date of your payment, the title Municipal Mayor, and a QR code. The note on the permit says that it must be displayed conspicuously in the place of business and surrendered when the business closes.
